No old business.

New Business

Website: Todd updated events and page accordingly. Todd added the photos from the Applebee's event, added the Amazon Smile and bumped up the Heroin Summit.

Applebee's Flap Jack Fundraiser: We didn't have as many people as we had hoped/expected. It was a fun event that we enjoy doing. Geoffrey Owens made an appearance which went well. It is something that we will probably pass up for next year since we are doing the Tricky Tray.

6th & 7th grade: The school asked to have programs during the year in both grades. Nothing is scheduled for the rest of this school year. We will probably schedule for next year.

Tricky Tray: The date has been booked, April 22, 2017. We will start meeting and planning in July.

Project Pride: Prisoners from the N.J. State Prison will be here as the third phase of our program. They will be here on Tuesday, May 17 and speak the last period of the day after they have lunch. Mike Ritter called letting us know that next year is filling up already, so we scheduled next year for Wednesday, May 24, 2017.

Heroin Summit of 2016: April 26, 2016, the event will be free. Our list is at about 265 people with a few days to go before the event. We will be starting promptly at 7:00 PM for the event. Each speaker will have about 6 minutes. Once all speakers have finished we will have a question and answer session of all speakers at the same time. We will provide refreshments to the speakers. The resource tables will be set up between 2 pm and 4 pm.

Celebrity Day: June 7, 2016; this will be our 17th Annual “Breakfast with the Stars”/Celebrity Day. We are expecting up to 14 celebrities. The night before we will take all celebrities and committee members out to dinner. The breakfast starts at 7 am and will be provided by Pat and Henry Hill, it will be $4 per person which the RTSAA pays for.

Public Session: Donna has suggested that we do a raffle of either a brand new Harley Davidson that are $10 per ticket; there are 3,000 tickets that are sold. This is something the committee is going to consider and talk to the dealerships in the area.

Meeting adjourned at 8:03 pm.

Next meeting: May 19 at Copeland at 7:00.
